and you can start filling in your profile and write a short introduction about yourself.

About myself

For your own safety, do not fill-in your email address, phone number, Facebook, Skype or any other identifiable information.

Here you introduce yourself to the other members. In your own words, tell everything you want to say about yourself and the person you are looking for. For a good dating experience, it is important to clearly and completely fill this out. The inclusion of e-mail addresses and / or other contact details is not permitted.
